

WE NOMINATE

George Archibald Brakeley, a member of one of New Jersey's pioneering families and an unsung pioneer in the sphere of educational administration, whose retirement (July 1st) as Vice-President and Treasurer of Princeton University has been announced with the utmost reluctance by President Harold W. Dodds. Fourteen years after he was called here from the University of Pennsylvania, the 68-year old Brakeley—a confirmed Princetonian ever since he completed his studies with the Princeton Class of 1907—is bequeathing to his successors the killing job of directing a non-profit enterprise with an annual operating budget of $12,000,000.

In the year 1953 seven and eight-digit figures are tossed about with abandon but in Brakeley's case they present the most effective way of emphasizing the scope of his near-incredible achievements. In 12 years at Pennsylvania (1927-1939) this native of Dunellen, N. J., the first non-alumnus in two centuries to occupy a key post in Pennsylvania's administration, was directly responsible for raising more than $17,000,000. Here at Princeton, with "war and the fear of war" hastening Old Nassau's development, the University's budget has been quadrupled and the book-value of its endowment has mushroomed from $31,500,000 in 1939 to some $54,000,000 in 1953.

The Princeton Phase of his career has spanned the most trying period in the history of American education. One of the first to sense that the "day of the big gift" was a phenomenon of the past, Brakeley in 1940 brought into being the Princeton University Fund and its Annual Giving Program, which have made it possible for the University to maintain its equilibrium by producing over $4,000,000 in expendable funds in the past 13 years. The problems of funnelling 20,000 Armed Forces trainees through Princeton in World War II were part of Brakeley's worries, as were the post-war tasks of absorbing about $3,000,000 annually in research projects sponsored by industry and government.

A profound admirer of Woodrow Wilson, who almost a half-century ago taught him in a room located in the depths of the "old library," Brakeley early in life only had eyes for journalism. He caught on with the Jersey Journal in 1908 and two years later moved to the New York Morning Sun to remain until 1919 when he became managing editor of the National Red Cross Magazine. From there the road led to fund-raising and public relations, to Pennsylvania and to Princeton where at one time he held top positions in seven different organizations, including the board chairmanship of Associated Universities, Inc., which operates the Brookhaven National Laboratory and represents the Nation's largest investment in atomic energy research.

For placing his responsibilities to others above all else; for finding an outlet in education for his insight, imagination and executive ability; for meriting the unqualified praise and thanks of such eminent educators as Thomas S. Gates and Harold W. Dodds; he is our nominee for

Topics of the Town

Sound Planning. Princetonians learned this week that consolidation of the borough and township can be effected smoothly and without precipitating a myriad of undesirable, expensive changes. In a simply-worded but broadly comprehensive plan that requires less than 700 words to state its form of procedure, the Joint Consolidation Committee has set forth the ten basic steps to be followed.

Seven of them require but a single sentence to attain definition of purpose in full. The complete text of the plan is published on page 4.

The proposal retains many of the principal points of the community's character, form of government, municipal and school services. It provides for vesting the combined assets of the two municipalities in the one to be created, and it stipulates that township indebtedness for its school district shall be paid off by present township residents, not apportioned among all Princetonians.

The plan advocates maintenance of present borough ordinances, rules and regulations for 90 days
after consolidation, which is suggested for January 1, 1955. Reenaction may follow at the discretion of the governing body, which the committee feels should be a mayor and six councilmen, elected at large.

Basic municipal services now handled jointly (police radio, fire protection, sewer and incinerator, civilian defense and the public library) would, of course, be continued without interruption. Provision is made that the cost and manner of sewerage disposal and garbage collection services will continue as at present, until other provisions are made.

A consolidated fire department would be formed, but present members would lose no credit for service already rendered toward an exempt fireman's certificate. Residence in the borough at the time of election to the department will count as residence in the new municipality.

As indicated earlier, November 3 of this year has been set as the time for a referendum on the plan.
The first of two public hearings will be held Monday night at 8 at Princeton High School; the second, originally set for June 8, has been postponed to June 10.

In designating the borough form of government as its choice for the new municipality, the committee issued this statement outlining its functions:

A Worthwhile Personal Loan Can Make Us Proud, Too!

Perhaps we can help a proud father "pay for the baby." That's a pretty important loan for all concerned.

And then there are other needs that your budget may not cover . . . special dental work . . . unusual taxes . . . school expenses . . . an emergency trip.

To our way of thinking, personal loans at these times can be more than just loans.
Give us a chance to help. We'd like to.

 "The borough form of government is long established in New Jersey and is used by some 258 municipalities. Under this form, the voters elect a mayor and six councilmen, an assessor and a collector-treasurer. All the other officers and employees are appointive.

"The governing body also has the option of providing for the substitution of an appointive board of three assessors in place of the elective assessor, by submitting the question to a referendum. The governing body may also, in its discretion, establish such offices and positions as are needed for the good government of the municipality.

"The mayor and council sit together as a single body for the establishment of policy, the enactment of ordinances and the consideration of the business of the municipal government. The mayor is constituted as the chief executive of the municipality and has the power of appointment of all appointive officers with the advice and consent of the council.

"The mayor may vote on the enactment of ordinances only in the case of a tie. He is vested with a veto power which may be overridden by the vote of two-thirds of the six councilmen.

"In its daily operation, a municipality governed under the borough form of government is subject to the various general laws of the State relating to other forms of local government, such as the local budget law, the local bond law, the State health act, the planning and zoning enabling act and other legislative enactments. The school law, and organization of the school district, would be the same as at present in the Borough and in the Township."

A Chance to Give. The Red Cross has announced that the Bloodmobile will be in Princeton next Thursday, June 4, from noon until 6 o'clock to collect donations of a pint of blood from some 200 residents of the community. Volunteers are asked to use these telephone numbers to register: 2404, daytime; 1535, evenings, Saturday and Sunday.

The chapter's slogan: "Roll up your sleeve—that a child may walk, that a soldier may live."

Parade Saturday. Major General Lehm S. Hobbs, who was in command of the 30th Infantry Division in Europe during the last war, will be the Memorial Day speaker at the Battle Monument. He will be heard at 11:30, following the annual parade.

Services in Princeton and St. Paul's Cemeteries will precede the parade, which will move up Nassau Street at about 10:30 a.m. Special guests for the occasion will include Mrs. Herman N. Archer, Charles Bauman, Edwin Vickery, George M. Durner, Jr., Mrs. Caspar E. Goodrich, Mrs. Herbert A. Gibbons, Edward F. Meehan and Colonel James P. Barney.

An Army band from Fort Dix will provide the music for the occasion, with an infantry company also in the line of march. A military touch will also be lent by the presence of Company L, N.J. National Guard; the 307th F.A. Battalion; color guards from the Army and Navy ROTC and Air Force units at the University; and a firing squad from Camp Kilmer.

Members of Princeton Posts 76 and 218, American Legion, and their auxiliaries, will parade. Others to be seen will be borough and township officials; color guards from the three volunteer fire companies; Princeton High School pupils; boy, girl and cub scouts; Red Cross chapter members; players in the Midget Baseball League and the Princeton First Aid Unit.

It's New to Us

Ten O'Clock Scholars. Graduate or just promoted, any boy or girl would like a shockproof Black Lancers watch as a token of success. Thorne's has them at 168 Nassau in gold flash with black dial. Boys' have expansion bracelets and cost $8.95. Girls' have black felt bands and cost $9.95.

For parents, the great thing about these watches, aside from reasonable price, is the guarantee: one year from purchase date. If anything goes wrong in that time, take the watch to Thorne's—no need to mail it to the factory—and you'll get another.

We found, in this store, a nifty little fitted plastic bag. It has, besides bottles and such, a shampoo bottle topped with one of those round toothy things you scrub your scalp with. Large beach or utility bags cost $1.95 and come in plain colors, tropic prints, or geometric designs with bottoms that are plastic made to look like woven straw. To keep you cool at home, Thorne's has the GE fan that won a prize for safety. It can be used as a room or window fan and nobody can catch a finger in it.

Timeless Cherry. If you have completed the purchase of some modern furniture but wondered about spending all that money for what may be a fad, you'll want to see Willett's Transitional furniture at Nassau Interiors, 162 Nassau. It's featured in the June issue of House Beautiful, by the way.

These pieces are made of cherry finished in a deep tobacco hue with simple polished brass hardware. We saw the furniture next to bright country prints, but it would look cute as well with informal modern fabrics. Any colors in the brown-russet palette would be right with the finish of this wood.

Just to be sure that everybody's pocketbook has a chance, Willett manufactures two different lines. The less expensive group is a little smaller and has flush tops on the chests. In the larger group we liked a triple dresser with wide drawers on each side and smaller ones down the center. Sixty inches long for $219.

A standard, six-drawer chest is $159. You can buy a bed headboard or a lovely spindle bed with the spindle ends making a smooth row of circles across the top bar. A small table with two drawers and long legs could be used as a night table or end table.

Diningroom furniture includes a buffet with four shallow drawers and a door for $161. We were impressed with a large drop-leaf that extends to 72 inches and costs $149.50. If your diningroom and checkbook won't stretch that far, look at the little drop-leaf for $59.50.

"...to Visit the Queen." It was pussy cat, pussy cat who went on the famous visit to London many a long nursery rhyme ago. This Coronation year it seems to be mice. At least the pair of mice we saw in The Little Clothes Line, 5 Palmer Square West, are certainly bound for the Coronation.

They are about two inches tall, these royal white felt mice, dressed in lace with crowns and red velvet cloaks trimmed in—well, it's almost ermine. They are $2.95 each.

Still in the miniature category is a covey or a brace or whatever you call more than one, of game birds two inches high. We identified—without binoculars, but then it was a clear day—pheasant, grouse and what was probably quail. They are made of real feathers, so life-like poppa will reach for his gun.

Swim and play suits by Cole of California can almost qualify as miniatures—wait'll you see those tiny sizes for somebody no bigger than a pebble. Cole has put polka dots the size of sand dollars in red or green on a white playsuit with elastic bloomers beneath a widely ruffled skirt. Small white sailor faces peer from the navy blue of another suit.

These suits have elastic straps made by that special Cole process and elasticized bodice, either in—Continued on Page 14 tract and hold an audience in New York's Washington Square.

Complications involving a permit from the city's Department of Parks postponed the excursion from Sunday afternoon to Wednesday. But reception of the plan, which received front-page newspaper stories and a place on radio news programs, was indicative of public interest in a novel idea one that was first jokingly advanced by one of the pupils and accepted after due consideration by faculty member Arthur Hough.

Shareholders Profit. A dividend of four percent on all of its installment shares was paid during the past year by the Nassau Building and Loan Association. The figure totalled $24,406.86, with earnings after taxes set at $25,292.19.

The association also reported that in 29 years of its existence, it has financed 496 homes through mortgages totalling in excess of $3,600,000. Repayments to shareholders on withdrawals and maturities amount to some $2,350,000, which includes a profit to members of $513,000.

Harry L. Renwick, re-elected president, feels the community faces another prosperous 12 months, with employment and personal income at a high level and the real estate market stabilized, making it more attractive to buyers than it has been in recent years. Officers re-elected with Mr. Renwick were Robert A. Benham and Homer M. Hill, vice-presidents; Arthur L. Everett, secretary; Harold M. Hinkson, treasurer; Paul S. Smith, assistant secretary; Albert J. Stives, assistant treasurer; W. Douglas Smith, counsel. Directors whose terms expired and who were re-elected include Mr. Benham, Mr. Smith, Henry W. Jeffers, Wilbur F. Kerr and Frank E. South.

Township Registration Policy. The Township Board of Education has announced that it will continue its acceleration program for children whose birthdays do not fall within the prescribed period for registration. All children who will have reached their fifth birthday by November 30 may register for kindergarten.

However, parents of children who become 5 after that date, who feel that their children are sufficiently mature, socially, physically and mentally, and would profit by an earlier experience in kindergarten, may apply for admission. Consultation with Mrs. Bertha Eisenmann, Superintendent of Schools, is required in advance, and in any event before June 11. The board of education has pointed out that no special consideration or placement in the morning or afternoon sessions will be given to such children.

Conference for Girls. An Inter-denominational Conference for high school girls will be held at the Westminster Choir College from June 16 to 23 under the sponsorship of the Middle Atlantic Area of the Northfield League. Music, discussion groups, lectures, motion pictures and recreational activities will all be a part of the program.

All high school girls are eligible to attend but should register as early as possible. Complete details may be obtained through the committee chairman, Mrs. H. Norman Perkins of 25 South Stanworth Drive (tel. 2831).

Miscellany. Motorists fined for speeding by Magistrate Paul R. Chesebro include Orren Jack Turner, Sr., 112 Nassau Street; Herbert S. Bailey, 20 Edwards Place; Mrs. Janice G. Masi, Van Kirk Road; and Mrs. Edgar S. Smith, Princeton Pike, who told Town Topics that she was given a summons for traveling at the rate of 32 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone.

fined for failing to have his driver's license in his possession. Mrs. Dorothy E. Jones, 331 Witherspoon Street, was fined for failing to give the right of way at an intersection.

Meyers, Fackler Road; Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Jacoby, 14 Spruce Street; Dr. and Mrs. Alfred S. Cook, Jr., 261 Nassau Street.

A fire siren has been placed in operation atop the Tax Institute building at 457 Nassau Street. Its presence there is expected to ease the problem of spreading the alarm among firemen who live in the eastern section of town.

Pfc. Edward Owens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Owens of 14 Quarry Street, is on his way home from Korea under the Army's rotation program. An alumnus of Princeton High School, he has been serving as a machine gunner in the 27th Regiment of the 25th Division and has seen six months of action.

Mollenkopf, vice-president; Mrs. John de Groot, treasurer; Miss Marguerite Mitchell, assistant treasurer; Mrs. Milton Brum, recording secretary; Mrs. Frank Gorman, Jr., corresponding secretary; Mrs. Henry Bowman and Mrs. Archibald Crossley, members-at-large.

Committee chairmen include Miss Anne Turnbull, entertainment; Mrs. George H. Brown, hospitality; Mrs. Frank Gorman, Sr., investments; Mrs. Albert Elasser, membership; Mrs. Lowell Norton, publicity; Mrs. Louis West, scholarship.

The Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church will meet Monday at 3 at the home of Mrs. P. H. Waddell Smith, 50 Hodge Road. The speaker will be Mrs. Herbert Trautman, President of the Women's Association of the First Church of Haddonfield.

The annual meeting of the Alumni Association of Miss Fine's School will be held at the school next Thursday, June 4, at 3:30.

Guggenheim Fellowships have been awarded to three Princetonians: Dr. Harold F. Eium, 38 College Road, visiting lecturer at the University who will continue his research into the origin of cancer; Dr. Americo Castro, 143 Patton Avenue, professor of Spanish whose field is European thought and history in the 16th century; and Dr. Charles de Tolnay of 293 Nassau Street, art historian, who will

Need Another Tractor?

If you're watching the weeds grow in the corn when the haying can't wait—worrying about planting when there's still more plowing and harrowing—or wishing the manure would haul itself when the big tractor's busy... you need another tractor.

With a Farmall Cub, you can plant, cultivate, or mow 12 acres a day... rake at 3 miles an hour... haul faster than a team. And you can spray, pump, run an elevator, plow snow, saw wood, shell corn, grind feed... a hundred other jobs too small for the big tractor.

Come in and see the Farmall Cub. It may be just what you need.

News of the Theatres

THE PLAYHOUSE

The Greatest Show on Earth (Thurs.-Sat.) returns for an engagement at regular prices with the Academy Award in tow, mostly as a tribute to its box office power. Because of the length (153 min.) of the Cecil Be DeMille Technicolor spectacle, the timeable of showings will be: matinee at 2:30, evenings at 6:30 and 9:10.

It's a huge and sprawling melodrama filled not only with the magic of a circus performance, but also with behind-the-scenes conflict. The staggering collection of stars includes Betty Hutton, James Stewart, Charlton Heston, Gloria Grahame, Cornel Wilde, Dorothy Lamour, with the big plus of Emmett Kelly, the great clown, and other Ringling Bros.-Barnum and Bailey performers.

The President's Lady (Sun.-Tues.) more or less chronicles the private life of Andrew and Rachel Jackson, played by Charlton Heston and Susan Hayward. Her prior divorce engenders much slander and naturally Jackson is involved in many duels of honor on his way to the presidency.

Young Bess (Wed.-Sat.), timed to catch Coronation fever, features Jean Simmons in a likeable portrayal of the youth of Queen Elizabeth I. The Technicolor film hacks around with history and royal pageantry of 16th century England, and MGM's version calls for much mooning over Stewart Granger as a romantic admiral. Another formidable Henry VIII performance by Charles Laughton and Deborah Kerr as his eighth and last wife are included.

THE GARDEN

The Girls of Pleasure Island (Fri.-Sat.) is a mild little thing about the wholesale courtship of three British girls on a Pacific isle by 1,500 Marines. Don Taylor, Leo Genn, Elsa Lanchester and three newcomers as the girls generate a pleasant enough bit of Technicolor entertainment.

The Importance of Being Earnest (Mon.-Wed.) is a brilliant film version of Oscar Wilde's elegant frolic of manners, morals and marriage at the turn of the century in England. A colossal joke to start with, Wilde's piece is packed with wit and epigram, and has been beautifully photographed (in Technicolor), costumed and set. Wonderful acting in the high style by Michael Redgrave, Michael Denison, Joan Greenwood, Dame Edith Evans, Margaret Rutherford, others.

I Love Melvin (Thurs.-Sat.) wanders along happily as a Technicolor romantic comedy with lively dances. Donald O'Connor can be very funny as a photographer's assistant posing as the real thing in order to capture the affections of Debbie Reynolds.

Summer Openings. Bucks County Playhouse gets under way next Friday evening at 8:30 with the top straight play gresser in American theatre history, "Mister Roberts," and the Lambertville Music Circus opens its tent the same night with Victor Herbert's "Sweethearts."

The cast for "Mister Roberts" at the picturesque New Hope playhouse will be headed by Ray Parker in the title role and consists mainly of the actors who recently closed the smash national tour. Christine Matthews and Richard Atchison are featured in "Sweethearts" at the Music Circus on the Lambertville side of the river.

MURRAY THEATRE

Tennessee William's comedy "The Rose Tattoo" will open the University Players' six-week season on Monday, June 22, at the Murray Theatre. Second on the schedule will be George Bernard Shaw's "The Devil's Disciple," a comedy about Puritanism.

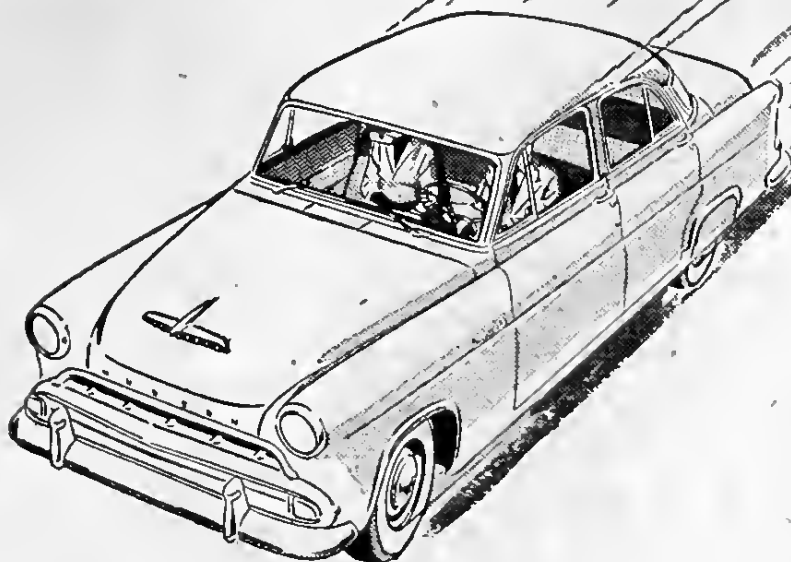

"The Infernal Machine" by Jean Cocteau will play the week of July 6, followed by an evening of one-acters which will include: "Red Peppers" by Noel Coward, "Hello Out There" by William Saroyan and "The Apollo of Marsae" by Jean Giradoux. The fifth week will be a premiere of a show still to be obtained and Shakespeare's great romance "The Tempest" will close the season.

Bretaigne Windust, the Broadway producer-director, founded the original University Players group in 1926. Norris Houghton, another early member, recently published smoky flavor.

With Bar B Q comes a haking brush for putting it on. Twelve ounces for 59c at The Food Mart, 20 Witherspoon.

In the summertime we have often watered in our kitchen as many as nine hot sticky children, all thirsty, all eager to exchange germs over a glassful of water. This year we are prepared. We have, screwed into the wall by the sink at third-grade level, a home dispenser for Dixie cups. We bought a red one (you can have yellow, if you wish) at The Food Mart and we expect to use about 12 dozen cups
a week, once the season begins.

Trousseau-Time. You can undoubtedly assemble a trousseau any time of the year you've a mind to, but June is the traditional time for this type of activity. Bert-Ann, at 188 Nassau, has some robes, mostly in nylon tricot, that would add a cool touch to any summer lingerie collection, trousseau or no.

We liked a white peignoir, all nylon, buttoned to the neck with rhinestones. It's $16.95. Another robe, for $13.95, is made of something called ny-ron. It's a mixture of acetate rayon and nylon. Looks smooth and light like nylon but has a seersucker pucker. Its sleeves are short and puffed and its waist pulled in with a wide elasticized belt.

One of the handsomest robes we saw—in pale shell pink or aqua—was made of nylon tricot with a short tailored sleeve, surplice neckline and full skirt in back, almost like a train. For this one, $27.50.

To make you cool and easy on steamy nights, Bert-Ann has a thing that's half romper, half pajama. In nylon tricot, it has short bloomer legs, wide neck, short puff sleeves. The bodice is gathered with a wide band of elastic thread for tight fit. Bert-Ann has it in a clear coral pink or a blue called bluebell. For $7.95.

Cuttlefish, Anyone? We suggest, next time you entertain, that you wait until the third martini and then bring out a plate of octopus, seasoned, skewered and served hot or cold.

You can pass it off as your own catch, if you can get away with it;
actually, it's simpler to pick up a live-octopus can at the Nassau Delicatesen, 45 Palmer Square West.
Costs 75c. The octopus comes from Japan. You take it from there.

Next on the shelf is a can of whale meat, smoked. This comes from Norway and people who know, say it tastes like strong beef, not like fish at all. (Can the octopus say as much?) This can is snack-size, too; you don't get the whole whale, you know.

For a special Sunday morning breakfast, try cinnamon jelly on hot toast. In the jar it's half red, half green, but it tastes the same all the way through.

What color is an octopus, by the way?

Sports in Princeton

Lacrosse Title Captured. Princeton's third championship (others in tennis and 130-lb. class) won during the current season came its way Saturday, a week after the final lacrosse game had been played here. Navy turned the trick by upending favored Army, 10-7, at Annapolis, with Ferris Thomsen, the Tigers' coach, among the 5,000 spectators. In three years since he came from Pennsylvania, Thomsen's teams have shared or won the national title twice.

Playoff Series Set. The road toward a fourth championship will be rugged, but the fact that it is open to the baseball team at all is quite amazing. Half a game out of first place, and confronted with the possibility that Yale may make it a three-way tie with Pennsylvania, the Tigers must beat Harvard to win their way into the playoffs. If the Elis can also use the Crimson as a stepping stone, this is the complicated but feasible arrangement that will be followed:

Friday, June 5, at New Haven: Princeton vs. Harvard in rained-out game of May 2.

Tuesday, June 9, at University Field: Princeton vs. Penn. If Princeton has beaten Harvard.

Wednesday, June 10, at Cambridge: Yale vs. Harvard in rained-out game of May 15.

Friday, June 12, at Philadelphia: Yale vs. Pennsylvania, if Yale has beaten Harvard.

Saturday, June 13, at Princeton: Princeton vs. Yale. If both teams have beaten Harvard and Pennsylvania, the game will count as the final play-off for the league title.

To win, the Tigers must at least beat Harvard and Penn. If they lose either contest, the jig is up; if they take both and Yale is defeated once before June 13, the championship comes this way. A final complication is the fact that with commencement in the offing for all three colleges, rain will make further postponements virtually impossible.

The schedule gives Princeton one big break in that Dick Emery can then all three games on which the title may hinge. Not that Joe Castle hasn't been mighty impressive in hurling three shutouts this season, but Emery—in form—is very clearly the league's best pitcher. He now has four straight triumphs, including the 1-0 verdict over Karl Hey of Penn.

Two more victories followed close on the heels of the 7-3 decision at Cornell last week, as Castle blanked a powerful Fordham outfit, 1-0, and Emery edged an equally able Villanova nine, 3-2. The Rams were 12-2, while Villanova was looking for its 12th against four losses.

Castle made Princeton's first-inning run last the distance. He cut one runner down at the plate with the bases filled for an easy furee; fanned two pinch hitters with runners on third; and ended the losers' final threat in the eighth when he set up a quick one-out double play.

Emery's bat aided his cause in thorough fashion, his booming double scoring Ed Stimpson in the sixth to give the Tigers a 2-1 lead. This proved essential when Villanova—Continued on Page 16 nova tied the score in the ninth, only to see Gordie Gray drive in his second run of the affair with a shotgun single to center. Dick Savage slid in under the high throw to the plate, giving the Tigers their third victory in a week, sixth in their last eight games and on 11-6-1 mark for the year.

Rutgers' homecoming day this Saturday will find Princeton providing the opposition at New Brunswick. Castle's 3-0 shutout marked the first meeting of the teams this season.

Captain Joe Golden is lending the Eastern League with a .455 mark, but must hit close to .500 in what- ever games are left, since Colum- bin's Leo Bookman has closed out at .452. It's been ten years since Roy Talcott was the last Prince- tonian to take this individual title.

Cricket at Princeton. Princeton- ills who drove by Poe Field last Saturday afternoon saw sports ac- tion that is rapidly becoming a fa- miliar on the Princeton scene. The Princeton Graduate Cricket Club is now in its third year, drawing its membership from graduate and un- dergraduate students as well as faculty members.

The captain, Peter Fensham, is an Australian, and other standout players who have represented the team include Calver Cook, a South African educated at Cambridge; Ir- win Vas, a graduate student from India; and J. R. Pole, an English- man from Oxford who is the only member of the original 1951 team now playing. All of the personnel does not, however, come from various parts of the British Empire, with a number of players American. Undergraduates include George Beatty and Skip Banyard, a freshman.

Last week's game, played against a Brooklyn team of West Indians known as the Empire Cricket Club, went to the visitors by seven wickets. Baseball fans will be in- terested in the following except from an account of the match fur- nished TOWN TOPICS by Mr. Pole:

"A soft pitch helped the bowlers all the way through, and Princeton, batting first, could muster only 24 runs. Only Maurice Pasion and Ashok Bhavnani offered resistance to the bowling. Fighting back, the home players captured two wickets in the second over of the Empire C.C. innings, but after that the visitors knocked off the runs they needed to win and went on to score 71 for 7 wickets before declaring their innings closed to give Princeton time for an unofficial second innings.

"The batting was not distinguish- ed on either side. But the differ- ence was that the visitors, though losing wickets, did punish the loose ball while the Princeton men let the opportunities go by."

The first game of the season, against Harvard, was won by eight wickets but thereafter the team lost to Yale, Staten Island, Haver- ford and the Empire C.C. A con- test at State College, Pa., is sched- uled for Memorial Day, while Staten Island will play a return match here on June 6. Game-time on Poe Field will be 2 o'clock.

Springdale Team Unbeaten. Five women members of the Springdale Golf Club have had a highly suc- cessful season to date playing as a team against other clubs in northern New Jersey, Long Island and Westchester County, N. Y. Four Princetonians are on the team: Mrs. James Whelan, Mrs. Uzi McCarter, Mrs. Donald Strachan, Mrs. Robert Shaw while Mrs. Donald Frutland is from Law- renceville.

Seven clubs, all beaten by the Springdale quintet, were Delwood, Frankness Hills, Essex County, Morris County, Rumson, Spring Brook and Twin Brooks. Then, as representative of the fourth series of women's teams in New Jersey, the Springdale team played and defeated Wheatley Hills, Long Is- land, and Fernway of Westchester in a three-way match at Ridge- wood.

Elevation to series three is scheduled to follow by next season, and hopes are that Springdale can be represented by two teams. All women members with handicaps of 20 or less are eligible.

Yankees and Pirates Lead. The Yankees have maintained first place in the American League and the Pirates have taken over top spot in the National League as a result of the third week of play in the YMCA's midget circuit. Closely pursuing the leaders are the Tigers (coached by Captain Joe Golden of the Princeton varsity nine) and the Giants.

The annual all-star contest is set for Saturday at 6, when the top players on teams in the American League will face the pick of the National loop. The contest will take place on a shortened diamond on Brokaw Field.

The standings as of May 22, with the sponsors:

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Yankees (Hult's)	6	1	.858
Tigers (Lions Club)	4	1	.800
Indians (Heyden)	4	2	.667
Red Sox (Town Topics)	2	3	.400
Athletics (Fair)	1	4	.200

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Pirates (Walker-Gordon)	5	2	.714

Cardinals (Nill's)	1	6	.143

Bowlers Head for Finals. Captained by John P. Golden, an eight-man team from Princeton Engine Company No. 1 is working its way toward the playoffs in the Tri-County Bowling League. Other members are John Van Maister, the manager; George Willis, Walter Coan, John Cashill, Bernard Glover, William Whatley and Elmer McHugh.

The season operates on a split basis, with Belle Mead having won the first half and running ahead in the second. However, Engine Company No. 1 was first-half runner-up and if it finishes in that spot again, will have the right to bowl Belle Mead for the championship. Captain Golden's team is currently in second place.

The Nassau Oil Company has donated a trophy for the winner, while Freeholder Edward A. Thorne will present a trophy to the runner-up. Other entries include the Hook and Ladder Company of Princeton, Kingston, Rocky Hill, Hillsboro, Hopewell, Blawenburg, Skillman and Monmouth Junction.

School Sports. Princeton High School's track team will defend its Central Jersey Group III championship at Asbury Park Saturday. The Little Tigers have won the title five straight years. Long Branch, with which this season's dual meet was washed out, is figured to provide the biggest threat.

Somerville was swamped last week, 83½ to 33½, to become the Little Tigers' 37th consecutive victim. Co-captain Larry Fitzgerald registered a double in the high jump and the javelin to account for two of the ten first places won by the Blue and White. Pennington Prep on Wednesday of this week and Trenton Catholic next Tuesday were scheduled to provide the final opposition before the state meet on June 6.

Princeton High School's baseball team dropped to a 4-7 mark for the season this week after losing a pair to Trenton nines. Ewing High topped the Blue and White last week, 6-2, and Monday saw Trenton Catholic ahead by a 5-3 count.

The Little Tigers could not hold a brief 2-1 lead against Ewing, the visitors rallying for five runs in the closing innings. Power at the plate told the story as Ewing outhit the home forces, 11 to 2.

The contest against Trenton Catholic was deadlocked after three innings at 2-all, but the victors pushed three runs across in the sixth to one for Princeton High. Keith Wallace, Tom Brown and Bill Rodefald scored for the losers. A game against Somerville this Thursday afternoon will bring the high school's schedule to a close.

Hun School's baseball team lost to Peddie to close out its season with a lone victory in a dozen starts. The Hightstown nine won, 4-0, racking up all its runs in the third inning.

Russ Summers and Pat Tidey got the only two hits off Ed Sykes, the winning hurler. Tidey, the loser, yielded seven hits and as many walks but struck out nine.

 NOT ON A SHOESTRING

If you begin to save substantially now each pay day for your home, you will get three big bonuses when you buy or build.

1. With a substantial down payment, you can make a better deal—a much better deal.
2. You save interest on the mortgage . . . the less the mortgage, the less the interest.
3. Most of all, you save the worry over too big a mortgage on too small an income, especially if that income is out for any reason.

And finally, your house IS built upon a rock, when it is soundly financed. The mortgage must be one adapted to your ability to repay and placed with a friendly local bank, such as the Princeton Bank and Trust Company, which will show you every possible consideration.
